Workshop held on "Importance of Entrepreneurship" on 14th Sep 2019

Entrepreneurship Cell MANIT organized the workshop on Importance of Entrepreneurship on 14th Sep 2019 in Mechanical Engineering Department MANIT Bhopal and inaugurated by Dean Institute Development Prof. Manmohan Kapashe, HOD of Mechanical Department Prof. G. Dixit, TEQIP Coordinator Prof. Rajesh Gupta and Workshop Coordinators Dr. Akhilesh Barve and Dr. Vimlesh Kumar Soni. The workshop is funded by TEQIP.

The workshop started with words of wisdom by HOD Mechanical Engineering Department. He explained how a simple idea can change the world with the power of a innovative thinking and filing patent.

Dean Institute Development Prof. Manmohan Kapashe gave his speech on need of entrepreneurship and motivated all the present students.
Prof Rajesh Gupta, TEQIP Coordinator addressed the students and briefed about the TEQIP scheme.

Dr. Akhilesh Barve, workshop coordinator shared his knowledge of entrepreneurship and told about the mindsets of successful entrepreneurs, different sources of income and the difference between liabilities and assets.

Dr. Vimlesh Kumar Soni, the workshop coordinator shared his knowledge on business plan preparation and how to make a startup successful with new idea generation.
Dr. Ranjan Kumar, consultant in CRISP motivated participants through his playful strategies for motivation and explained the importance of oneness between mind and body making the session very interactive.

Workshop held on “Importance of Entrepreneurship” on 14th Sep 2019

Mr V. C. Dubey, Nodal officer, MP Govt. MSME department explained about the funding opportunities. He also talked about the startup support initiatives by state government.

Mr. Zeesan Khan, entrepreneur and CEO of Beyond Smart Group told his story of success, his contributions in making Indore the cleanest city of India and environmental protection. He also discussed how to tackle failures and risk taking capabilities through a very interactive session.

Mr. Vijay Mamtani, the founder and director of Prayogik Technologies amazed the students with his success story from struggling in Mumbai to spread his business in Russia. He motivated students and telling how he converted his final year project into a successful startup.

At last Dr. Akhilesh Barve given vote of thanks and certificates were distributed by the Entrepreneurs and the TEQIP Coordinator Prof. Rajesh Gupta to the participants and student coordinators. The workshop ended by capturing the moment in a group photograph.

