

Central Library

MANIT, Bhopal

Dated: 22 / 03 / 2011

The Central Library is highly pleased to announce the opening of its General Section. This year's focus was on developing a section rich in Hindi literature and Hindi translations of prominent works from other Indian languages. The need of developing a Hindi section to cater to the interest of faculty, staff and students was long felt, and with the MHRD also emphasizing the opening of a Hindi section it had become imperative.

The Hindi Section, at this point of time, has a very rich collection of highly famous works of premier authors, the most notable ones being Premchand, Acharya Hazari Prasad Dwivedi, Suryakant Tripathi Nirala, Phaneeshwar Nath Renu, Harivansh Rai Bachchan, Amritlal Nagar, Ilachandra Joshi, Bhagwati Charan Verma, Mahadevi Verma, Nand Kishore Acharya, Dharmveer Bharti, Ramdhari Singh Dinkar, Sarveshwar Dayal Saxena, Nirmal Verma, Amrita Preetam, Sharad Joshi, Harishankar Parsai, Ravindra Nath Tyagi, Shrilal Shukla, Manohar Shyam Joshi, Naresh Mehta, Bhishma Sahni, Mohan Rakesh, Asha Poorna Devi, Mahashweta Devi, Tarashankar Bandopadhyay, Dushyant Kumar, Shrikant Verma, Ramesh Chandra Shah, Giriraj Kishor , Shivaji Sawant , Ravindra Kalia, Himanshu Joshi , Shivani , Krishna Sobti, Chitra Mudgal, Mridula Garg, Mamta Kaliya, Saadat Hassan Manto, Ismat Chughtai, Qurrat – ul - Ain Haider, Rahi Masoom Raza, Firaq Gorakhpuri, Manzoor Ehtesham, Narendra Kohli, Gyan Ranjan, Akhilan, Priyamvad, Nasira Sharma, Rangeya Raghav, Padma Sachdeva, Uday Prakash, Gyan Chaturvedi, etc. The section also has an excellent collection of books related to Evolution and Growth of Hindi, Use of Hindi as Rajbhasha, and so on. In the coming years, concerted efforts will be made to enrich this section further by adding more books on Hindi and Hindi translations from other Indian languages.

The books will be available for issue from this Friday (25th March).

(Prof. Ajay Pandey)

Coordinator (Central Library)